PLEASE READ AND ANSWER ALL THE QUESTIONS BELOW:				YES	NO
Are you between the ages of 18 and 70 years?
Are you authorized to work in the United States on a full-time basis?
Will you now or in the future require sponsorship for employment visa status (e.g. H1B status)?
Can you travel if a job requires it?
Have you had your driver's license or driving privileges suspended or revoked in the past seven years?
Do you currently have a valid driver's license?
Have you been convicted of a felony or misdemeanor in the past seven years?
If you answered YES to one of or more of the above three questions, explain below. PLEASE NOTE: While conviction will not necessarily disqualify an applicant from employment, failure to fully disclose any information requested herein shall disqualify an applicant. You do not need to disclose minor traffic violations, such as parking or minor speeding violations, provided that convictions of such offense did not involve a sentence potentially being imposed upon you involving imprisonment or fines in excess of $500, regardless of whether or not the court imposed such sentence. If you are currently on probation under a deferred adjudication, please disclose the existence of the deferred adjudication. If you have successfully completed a deferred adjudication, you need not disclose this matter, as it is not a criminal conviction.
